

May 17, 2010
Spanish Class - Carol Nursery School

The children and I will sing the echo greeting song again today.

Me: ¡Hola!....	Kids: ¡Hola!
me: ¿Cómo estás?....	Kids: ¿Cómo estás?
Me: Muy bien....	Kids: Muy bien
Me: ¡Gracias!	Kids: ¡Gracias!

Cleveland weather in spring is always changing! Today's book is called Sol y lluvia/Sun and Rain. It's a story about Red Rhinoceros who goes out to water his flowers and encounters some unusual weather. After changing his clothes several times, he gives up, goes inside and pretends it's a sunny day inside. I'll play the song from Sesame Street's "Fiesta Songs" called "It Sure is Hot". It's a great song for teaching the kids the phrase, "Hace calor/It's hot!" when talking about the weather. Afterwards we will dance to a classic song called, "Que Llueva/Let it Rain" We will use hand motions when singing about the rain and the birds etc...When we finish, as usual we will sing our "Adiós mis amigos adiós" song. Our stamp for today is el sol verde/green sun.

afuera	ah-FWEH-rah	outside
hace sol	AH-say SOAL	it's sunny
hace calor	AH-say kah-LOAR	it's hot el cielo	el SYELL-oh	the sky
la lluvia	lah YOO-vya	the rain
la nieve	lah NYEH-vay	the snow
el sombrero	soam-BRER-oh	hat
el impermeable	el im-per-may-AH-blay	raincoat
el rinoceronte	el ree-noh-ser-OHN-tay	rhinoceros
el pájaro	el PAH-ha-roh	bird
una tormenta	oona tor-MEN-tah	storm
las nubes	lahs NOO-beys	clouds

Today's books:
Sol y lluvia
by Alan Rogers

Songs:
"It Sure is Hot"
"Que Llueva"

Gracias,
Señora Mónica