

Spanish Class

November 23, 2009

The children will get to practice their colors in Spanish as each child chooses a different color pluma/feather to place on our felt turkey. Then I will sing them a fun pavo/turkey poem (see below). If time permits, I will show the children various flash card foods. We will practice saying gracias after receiving our pavo stamp on our hands. Of course I always say de nada/your welcome (they should be very familiar with gracias and de nada). Feliz día de acción de gracias/Happy Thanksgiving!

| | | |
|------------|----------------|--------------|
| el pavo | el PAH-voh | turkey |
| las plumas | lahs PLOO-mahs | feathers |
| las papas | las PAH-pahs | potatoes |
| el pan | el PAHN | bread |
| la leche | lah LAY-chay | milk |
| gracias | GRAH-syas | thank you |
| de nada | day NAH-dah | your welcome |

Songs:

"La Comida"

"I'm A Little Turkey"

I'm a little turkey, ☐my name is Ted. ☐
Here are my feathers, ☐here is my chest. ☐
Gobble, gobble, gobble is what I say.
Quick! Run! It's Turkey Day!

"Soy un pavito"

Soy un pavito, me llamo Teo.
Aquí están mis plumas, aquí está mi pecho.
Gluglú, gluglú, gluglú es que yo digo.
¡Corre rapido es el día de pavo!

Gracias,
Señora Mónica